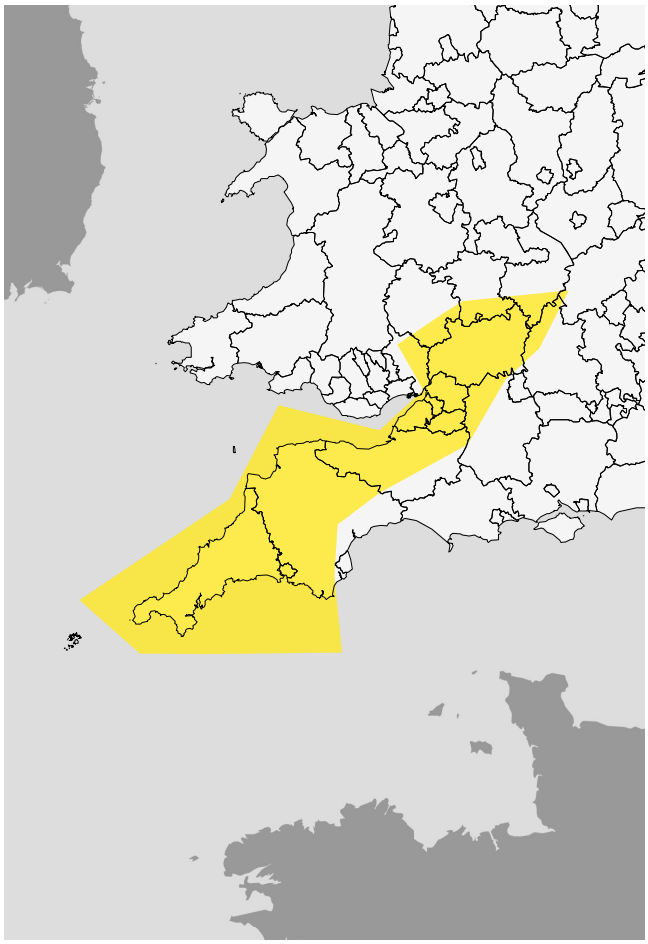
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
15:00 Fri 25 Oct 2019 and
15:00 Sat 26 Oct 2019



Heavy rain is expected, especially across high ground of southwest England which may bring flooding.

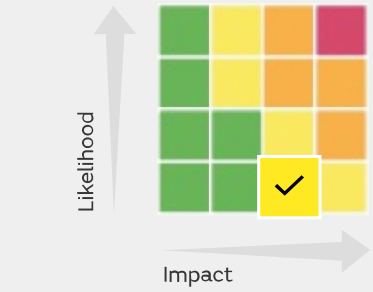
What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer

Further details

Rain is expected during Friday and Saturday and this will be heavy at times, especially over high ground.

Many places within the warning area will see 10-20 mm of rain. However, over high ground some places may see 80-90 mm - for example across Dartmoor and Exmoor. There is also the potential for shorter lived, more intense spells of rain to occur almost anywhere, perhaps giving 30-40 mm in 3 hours or less in some places. The rain should clear from the northwest by early afternoon.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts

Yellow warning
Rain

Between
15:00 Fri 25 Oct 2019 and
15:00 Sat 26 Oct 2019

Further Details (continued)

Rain will be accompanied by strong southwesterly winds with gusts reaching 55 mph, especially over coasts and hills. The strong winds may lead to significant leaf fall which could contribute to a higher risk of flooding.

Reason for update

Update to warning area. The likelihood of medium impacts has also been included.
